

Summer 2021 Information

Wednesday, April 21, 2021 -

Dear {NameFirst},

The Summer 2021 housing application portal is now available. To submit this application, please log into my.tcu.edu, click on Student Services, click on Housing – PortalX and then click on Summer Housing Application.

General Information:

If you are a current student registered for Summer School 2021, you are eligible for summer school housing, which will be located in Milton Daniel Hall. If you are a current TCU student who is not enrolled for summer school and need housing due to affiliation with a TCU program, you will have the opportunity to submit a request on the Session Selection page of this application. If you are a Spring 2021 graduate, you are not eligible for summer housing. All residence halls are smoke/tobacco/vape-free. Summer hall staff members are available 24 hours per day. Contact information will be posted at the Milton Daniel Hall front desk.

Summer School Housing Rates:

The rate for summer school housing is $20 per night and charges will begin on Saturday, May 8. You will be assigned into a double occupancy room with an XL-Twin bed. Milton Daniel Hall has community-style restrooms. If you are a resident in GrandMarc, Sandage/McCart or Village East and sign up for summer housing, that nightly rate is $30.

Summer Meal Plan:

The meal plan will provide three meals per day in Market Square for $20 per day. Meal plans are required if staying in the summer school hall (Milton Daniel). A meal plan is not required for students approved to remain in their apartment.

Residence Hall Access:

Milton Daniel Hall exterior doors remain locked 24 hours per day and is only accessible with your TCU ID Card once you have been given a summer assignment. If you are new to TCU or you have lost your TCU ID Card, you must go to the ID Card Center, located on the 2nd floor of the Brown-Lupton University Union to have an official TCU ID Card made.
